www.af-systems.com

Cookies are made up of portions of code installed in the browser, which help the Controller provide the Service based on the purposes described. Some of the purposes for which Cookies are installed may, in addition, require the User's consent.

When Cookies are installed based on consent, such consent may be freely withdrawn at any time, by following the instructions contained in this document.

Technical cookies and aggregated statistics cookies

- Activities that are strictly necessary for operation

- Activities pertaining to saving preferences, optimization and statistics Other types of Cookies or third-party tools that could install Cookies

Some of the services listed below collect statistics in aggregated and anonymous form and may not require the User's consent or may be managed directly by the Controller - in accordance with what is described - without the help of third parties.

Should the tools indicated below include services managed by third parties, the latter may - in addition to what is specified and also without the Controller's knowledge - track the User. For detailed information on this topic, we advise you to read the privacy policies of the services listed.

- Statistics

The services contained in this section make it possible for the Data Controller to monitor and analyse traffic data and serve to keep track of the User's behaviour.

Google Analytics (Google Inc.)

Google Analytics is a web analysis service provided by Google Inc. ("Google"). Google uses the Personal Data collected to track and examine the use of this Application, compile reports and share them with the other services developed by Google. Google may use the Personal Data to contextualise and customise the ads of its advertising network. Personal Data collected: Cookies and Use data.

Location of the processing: USA – Privacy Policy – Opt Out.

- Viewing external platform content

This type of service makes it possible to view contents hosted on external platforms directly from the pages of this Application and to interact with such contents.

If a service of this type has been installed, it may be that, also if the Users are not using the service, said service collects traffic data that relate to the pages in which it is installed.

Google Site Search (Google Inc.)

Google Site Search is a service for the incorporation of search engines managed by Google Inc. which makes it possible for this Application to integrate said contents in its pages.

Personal Data collected: Cookies and Use data.

Location of the processing: USA – Privacy Policy.

How can I express consent to the installation of Cookies?

In addition to what is mentioned in this document, the User may manage their preferences concerning Cookies directly from their browser and not allow - for example - their installation by third parties.

From the preferences of the browser it is also possible to remove the Cookies installed in the past, including the Cookie that may be used to save the consent to the installation of Cookies by this website. The User may find information on how to manage the Cookies with some of the most popular browsers, for example, at the following addresses: Google Chrome, Mozilla Firefox, Apple Safari and Microsoft Internet Explorer.

With reference to Cookies installed by third parties, the User may also manage their settings and withdraw consent by visiting the related opt-out link (if available), using the tools described in the third party's privacy policy or by directly contacting said third party.

Without prejudice to the aforementioned, the User may use the information provided by the EDAA (EU), the National Advertising Initiative (USA) and the Digital Advertising Alliance (USA), the DAAC (Canada), the DDAI (Japan) or other similar services. With these services it is possible to manage the tracking preferences of the majority of advertising tools. The Controller, therefore, advises the Users to use these resources in addition to the information provided by this document.
